To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to apply for the advertised position. I am currently in my penultimate year of study of a Bachelor of Game Development at SAE Institute in Melbourne, Australia. I am a passionate and hard-working video game design student seeking an opportunity to deliver successful results for any range of design and quality assurance positions. I am confident that my knowledge, ability and experience will prove useful for your company.

My professional skills include:

- Systems thinking: Thorough understanding of how each action influences a system as a whole. Through this mindset, I develop productive methods that are applicable to everyday work that contribute to the end goal without compromising on quality.
- Effective team member: Diligent and enthusiastic contributor who is driven to reach a common goal.
- Openly communicative: Always receptive to other's opinions and ideas when working collectively in groups.
- Attention to detail and improvement: Receptive to constructive criticism and continually aim to raise the bar.
- Committed to results and following through: Dedicated to delivering high results by aiming to consistently exceed past achievements.

I would embrace the chance to collaborate with and learn from like-minded, creative individuals who share my passion for Game Design. I am extremely grateful and extend my appreciation for your consideration. Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me via email, phone or to schedule an appointment. Please note that a letter of recommendation can be provided upon your request. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Duy Tran
